- morning snack

Directors' Dialogue

Mrs. Laura Fesser loves teaching her students how to think outside the "crayon box" by tapping into their God given creative potential through many different art experiences. She encourages her students to look at the world through an artist's eye. In her free time she gives private art lessons, draws and paints at home, and works in the Fine Arts department at her church.

Mrs. Sandra MacKay & Mrs. Cindy McKelvey are sisters who have both been working at Heritage Christian Schools for over 20 years, and have directed more than 85 programs between them. These ladies are committed to excellence and inspire to teach children how to give their best performance to a God Who deserves our best. They have been performing in front of audiences all their lives, starting when they were 4 and 2 years old with live performances on Sun-Up San Diego and The Regis Philbin Show. For fun, Mrs. MacKay and Mrs. McKelvey like to play games, scrapbook, and have breakfast at Panera with their family.

Miss Shelley Propp has a passion for teaching music! She graduated with a BA in Music Education with concentrated studies in Sacred Music from Bethel University and has been teaching 4th - 12th grade instrumental music at Heritage since the fall of 2008. When not teaching in the classroom, you might find her on the tennis court or reading a great book.
